2. The highest bidder, shall, on the bid being knocked down to him, deposit in currency notes or ready money, equal to the amount of 6 khists, or monthly instalments, each of such instalments being equal to $\frac{1}{12}$ of the year's bid or $\frac{1}{36}$ of the amount of the entire contract. If he fails to do so, the contract will be re-sold at once at his risk, and any loss that may thereby be caused to Government will be recovered from him as a revenue demand.

3. The accepted purchaser shall enter on his contract on the 1st April 1889, and shall pay his first monthly khist or instalment on or before the 15th of May 1889, and subsequent monthly instalment on or before the 15th of each successive month, such monthly payments being made without reference to the amount deposited, which will be taken in payment of the last 6 instalments, on the expiration of the contract.

4. Local cess at the prescribed rate will be charged on the monthly instalments to be paid by the contractor.

5. Should there be any failure or delay in the payment of the said instalments for two consecutive months or should any infringement of other conditions affecting the safety of jungles be committed, the contract will be liable to be cancelled summarily, the holder thereof being held responsible for the damage, and the contract will be re-sold at the risk of the defaulting contractor, who will further forfeit his deposit amount.
